Description :

PDF-70e81 | Written as a novel, the book makes the complex concepts, issues and terminology of international trade understandable for students. Professors complain that their students cannot grasp the nature of how some economic tools are used or how they work in life. This novel bridges the gap of concepts with applications by use of a fictional story. David Ricardo comes to life to discuss internatio... The Choice: A Fable of Free Trade and Protection (3rd Edition)
