Description :

PDF-b8976 | Between 1950 and 2009, 189 judges (including 37 Chief Justices) served on the Supreme Court of India, dubbed one of the world's most powerful courts. Not enough is known of who these judges were and the criteria that were used to select them for the court, especially of those who served on the court in relatively recent times. Broadly speaking, the Indian constitution formally provides that three ... The Informal Constitution: Unwritten Criteria in Selecting Judges for the Supreme Court of India
